PHILOSOPHY

The foundation of a successful basketball program lies in stressing fundamentals and hard work. While many camps focus on playing games and utilizing competitive events, the Irish Girls' Basketball Camp develops an individual player's skills and stresses the importance of dedication to improvement.

By stressing the basics, we believe our structure will help your daughter become both a better individual player and a better team player.

OBJECTIVES

- Have FUN
- Learn basic offensive moves
- Learn defensive positions
- Learn skill challenges
- Learn what it takes to be part of a championship team

CAMP STRUCTURE

A typical camp day is filled with individual drills and instructions to improve skills such as ball handling, passing, defensive stance, defensive position, and shooting. We have instructors helping with the drills who are experienced in working with girls of all ages.

We believe at the end of camp your daughter will have some necessary tools to practice at home to help her become the best player she can be.

CAMP STAFF

Coaches Kevin Bankos, Mike Weaver, Sue Reed and Ashton Hirsch guided the York Catholic Girls Basketball teams to an UNPRECEDENTED 13th STRAIGHT District Title Game, winning 11 Gold and 2 Silver Medals! Coach Bankos, staff & teams continued their success into their 13th straight post season in the State Tournament, winning 3 gold and 4 silver medals during their runs. This season they reached the State Quarter Finals Game.

They have coached at various AAU, grade school, junior high, high school and college levels. Their experience and basketball philosophies will help your daughters enjoy basketball and give them the tools they need to become better players.
