Welcome to York Catholic! York Catholic students read over the summer months, and we are excited for you to join in. Incoming seventh graders are to choose one book from the list that follows; feel free to read them all if you like!

Among the Hidden by Margaret Peterson Haddix
Middle School: How I Survived Bullies, Broccoli, and Snake Hill by James Patterson
Echo by Pam Munoz Ryan
Undefeated: Jim Thorpe and the Carlisle Indian School by Steve Sheinkin

Seventh graders will respond to four questions to be turned in on Friday, August 28. Responses should be typed and double spaced, with your name, date, and book title in the upper left corner. Write in complete sentences and answer fully. Elaborate and tell what you know. This will be your teacher’s first look at your writing skills and you will want to make a good impression! Proofread your writing closely for errors in grammar and punctuation, and make certain that your final draft is polished. This assignment will be worth a small test or a large quiz grade, depending on your teacher.

Student Name:
Date: August 28, 2020
Book Title:

Response Questions:

1. Give a brief summary of the book. Your response should include information about the setting (time and place), the main characters, and a brief discussion or synopsis of plot.

2. What did you like best about the book?

3. What would you change about the book?

4. People who like (name three things) would like this book because . . .

Happy Reading!
