

Summer Reading 2025

Incoming 8th Grade

Parents,

Our summer reading program affords our students choice in what they read, hoping that students can find a book that is a true page-turner. Our goal has always been to keep students reading through the summer months, but getting students to put down the phone and pick up a book is even more challenging. In expanding our recommended list, we hope to ensure there is something for everyone, and that the summer read is a positive experience and a fun adventure. Our English Department invested time developing reading lists per grade level, to include a few classics, nonfiction, realistic and historical fiction, science fiction, fantasy, and dystopia.

Take time with your student(s) to peruse the list, making sure their book choice meets with your parental approval. A synopsis is included with each title to assist with selection. We will ask students to respond to a written prompt referencing their title once they are back in the classroom in late August.

We wish your family a safe and fun-filled summer, and invite all of you to pick up one of the titles listed to enjoy on the beach, by the pool, on a long car ride, or in a shady chair in the backyard. Happy reading, everyone!

Mrs. Kathy Hand

Principal

Choose one of the following books to read during the summer. When you return to school in August, your chosen book will be the topic of your first writing.

Genre	Title/Author	Summary
Nonfiction Warriors Don't Cry Melba Pattillo Beals		In 1957, well before Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream" speech, Melba Pattillo Beals and eight other teenagers became iconic symbols for the Civil Rights Movement and the dismantling of Jim Crow in the American South as they integrated Little Rock's Central High School in the wake of the landmark 1954 Supreme Court ruling, Brown v. Board of Education. Throughout her harrowing ordeal, Melba was taunted by her schoolmates and their parents, threatened by a lynch mob's rope, attacked with lighted sticks of dynamite, and injured by acid sprayed in her eyes. Through it all, she acted with dignity and courage, and refused to back down.
Nonfiction Gifted Hands: The Story of Ben Carson Ben Carson		As a boy, he did poorly in school and struggled with anger. If it were not for the persistence of his mother, a single parent who worked three jobs and pushed her sons to do their best, his story may have ended tragically. Join Dr. Carson on his journey from a struggling inner-city student to the pinnacle of his career as a world-renowned neurosurgeon. A man of humility, decency, compassion, courage, and sensitivity, he now serves as a role model for everyone who wants to achieve their God-given potential.

Nonfiction Good Brother, Bad Brother: The Story of Edwin Booth and John Wilkes Booth James Giblin		Edwin Booth and his younger brother John Wilkes Booth were, in many ways, two of a kind. They were among America's finest actors, having inherited their father's commanding stage presence along with his penchant for alcohol and impulsive behavior. In other respects, the two brothers were very different. Edwin was more introspective, while John was known for his passionate intensity. They stood at opposite poles politically, as well: Edwin voted for Abraham Lincoln; John was an ardent advocate of the Confederacy.
Nonfiction/Memoir Chasing Lincoln's Killer James Swanson		New York Times bestselling author James Swanson delivers a riveting account of the chase for Abraham Lincoln's assassin. Based on rare archival material, obscure trial manuscripts, and interviews with relatives of the conspirators and the manhunters, Chasing Lincoln's Killer is a fast-paced thriller about the pursuit and capture of John Wilkes Booth: a wild twelve-day chase through the streets of Washington, D.C., across the swamps of Maryland, and into the forests of Virginia.
Classics Watership Down Richard Adams		Watership Down is the compelling tale of a group of wild rabbits struggling to hold onto their place in the world. Set in England's Downs, a once idyllic rural landscape, this stirring tale of adventure, courage and survival follows a band of very special creatures on their flight from the intrusion of man and the certain destruction of their home. Led by a stouthearted pair of brothers, they journey forth from their native Sandleford Warren through the harrowing trials posed by predators and adversaries, to a mysterious promised land and a more perfect society.

Classics The Secret Garden Frances Hodgson Burnett		The novel tells the story of young Mary Lennox, who is sent to live in her uncle's estate in Yorkshire, England. As she explores the grounds, she discovers a walled-off garden, which she soon begins to tend and nurture. Through her care, the garden becomes a place of wonder and healing, transforming the lives of those around her.
Classics Call of the Wild Jack London		The Call of the Wild, considered by many to be Jack London's greatest novel, is a gripping survival story of a heroic dog that, thrust into the brutal life of the Alaska Gold Rush, ultimately faces a choice between living in man's world and returning to nature. Adventure and animal-story enthusiasts, as well as students and devotees of American literature, will find this classic work a thrilling, memorable reading experience.
Realistic/ Historic Fiction Chains Laurie Halse Anderson		As the Revolutionary War begins, 13-year-old Isabel wages her own fight for freedom. Promised freedom upon the death of their owner, she and her sister, Ruth, in a cruel twist of fate, become the property of a malicious New York City couple, the Locktons, who have no sympathy for the American Revolution and even less for Ruth and Isabel. When Isabel meets Curzon, a slave with ties to the Patriots, he encourages her to spy on her owners, who know details of British plans for invasion. Realistic/ Historic Fiction Code Orange Caroline Cooney		Walking around New York City was what Mitty Blake did best. He loved the city, and even after 9/11, he always felt safe. Mitty was a carefree guy—he didn’t worry about terrorists or blackouts or grades or anything, which is why he was late getting started on his Advanced Bio report. Mitty does feel a little pressure to hand something in—if he doesn’t, he’ll be switched out of Advanced Bio, which would be unfortunate since Olivia’s in Advanced Bio. So, he considers it good luck when he finds some old medical books in his family’s weekend house that focus on something he could write about, but when he discovers an old envelope with two scabs in one of the books, the report is no longer about the grade—it’s about life and death. His own.
Realistic/ Historic Fiction Whale Talk Chris Crutcher	 (Available at Barnes and Noble)	T.J. Jones hates the blatant preferential treatment jocks receive at his high school, and the reverence paid to the varsity lettermen. When he sees a member of the wrestling team threatening an underclassman, T.J. decides he’s had enough. He recruits some of the biggest misfits at Cutter High to form a swim team. They may not have very much talent, but the All-Night Mermen prove to be way more than T.J. anticipated. As the unlikely athletes move closer to their goal, these new friends might learn that the journey is worth more than the reward.
Realistic/ Historic Fiction Red Kayak Priscilla Cummings		Brady loves life on the Chesapeake Bay with his friends J.T. and Digger, but developers and rich families are moving into the area, and while Brady befriends some of them, like the DiAngelos, his parents and friends are bitter about the changes. Tragedy strikes when the DiAngelos’ kayak overturns in the bay, and Brady wonders if it was more than an accident. Soon, Brady discovers the terrible truth behind the kayak’s sinking, and it will change the lives of those he loves forever. Priscilla Cummings deftly weaves a suspenseful tale of three teenagers caught in a wicked web of deception.

Realistic/ Historic Fiction Scat Carl Hiassen		Bunny Starch, the most feared biology teacher ever, is missing. To be honest, the kids in her class are relieved, but when the principal tries to tell the students that Mrs. Starch has been called away on a "family emergency," Nick and Marta just don't buy it. They figure the class delinquent, Smoke, has something to do with her disappearance, and he does, but not in the way they think. There's a lot more going on in Black Vine Swamp than any one player in this twisted tale can see. It's all about to reach a boiling point, and when it does, the bad guys better scat.

More than anything, Nate's family needs the money—his dad's been downsized, his mom's working two jobs, and they're on the verge of losing their house.
