The parties agree there shall be no unlawful discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, religion, creed, sex or sexual orientation, age, veteran status or disability in either the selection of Students for participation in the Program or admission to SJU; provided, however, that with respect to disability, the disability must not be such as would, even with reasonable accommodation, in and of itself preclude the Student from performing the essential functions of a Student at SJU.
- d. Student Records and Data. The parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of all education records in accordance with the provisions of The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"). The parties shall comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, statutes, regulations and other requirements established by international, federal, state and local governmental authorities regarding privacy and security protections for student and SJU and School data. This Agreement may not be amended or modified except by mutual written agreement.
- f. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, without regard to conflicts of laws principles.
- g. Assignment. Neither party shall assign or transfer, in whole or part, this Agreement or any of its rights, duties or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party. Any assignment or transfer without such consent shall be null and void.

The parties agree that, to the extent compatible with the separate and independent management of each, they will maintain effective liaison and close cooperation. If a dispute arises related to the obligations or performance of either party under this Agreement, representatives of the parties will meet in good faith to resolve the dispute; provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall impair or affect any rights of the parties pursuant to the Term and Termination Section hereof.
- j. Third parties. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer any rights, remedies, claims or interests upon any person not a party to this Agreement.
